6) Jr Developer (Full Stack) (Internship & Full-Time)

Aganitha Cognitive Solutions Pvt Ltd - Jubilee Hills, Hyderabad, Telangana

₹12,000 - ₹25,000 a month - Full-time, Internship - Temporarily remote

Aganitha accelerates drug discovery and development by applying the power of Genomics, AI, Cloud, and DevOps.

Discovery and development of drugs today are dramatically different from even a decade ago. Fundamental as well as translational research in biopharma are being transformed by rapid progress in informatics, AI and machine learning. At Aganitha, we are partnering with global biopharma companies to complement the traditional lab-based approaches with in-silico approaches to research and development.

We develop and deploy AI, data, and cloud-powered solutions that efficiently tackle the complexity, scale, and richness of modern biopharma R&D domains. We adopt multi-disciplinary approaches, blending and translating the latest knowledge in biology, chemistry, computing, and biopharma business.

We are looking for talented and experienced full stack developers. Those without prior experience may also apply to join as an intern first and then graduate into a full time role. Compensation advertised is for internship only; salary and benefits for full-time role will be based on relevant prior experience.

Given Aganitha's focus in application of AI and data technologies for R&D in Biopharma, all candidates must possess basic understanding and passion for computing in scientific domains. Specifically, college level understanding and interest in Biology and/or Chemistry are mandatory requirements. Applying candidates must have intermediate to advanced skill in the following areas:

1. Full stack development with Python, React, GraphQL on Linux
2. Data modelling, visualisation and analysis using both relational and NoSQL database platforms
3. Data pipelining with Apache Spark

4. Deep learning, NLP and classical ML methods

To apply and qualify, all candidates (freshers as well as experienced) must attempt an Online Quiz at <https://forms.gle/gCYxbW4yQGSazXkXA>. Candidate/Student id to be mentioned: Indeed032021.
